TO GUIDE STUDENTS TOWARD EXCELLENCE IN ACADEMIC, SOCIAL, PHYSICAL, AND SPIRITUAL DEVELOPMENT BASED ON CHRISTIAN PRINCIPLES.

- Students will have the skills and knowledge to undertake an academic K-12 curriculum. As students exit Cornerstone Academy, we expect that they will be equipped to enter post-secondary academic and/or vocational training institutions.

They will be able to:

- read and write effectively.
- locate, process and display information.
- communicate effectively.
- apply and utilize mathematical skills and ideas.
- utilize technology to access information.
- think logically, creatively, critically and inferentially.
- distinguish between fact and opinion.
- express feelings and thoughts through the arts.

They will know:

- foundational statements (including the Pledges of Allegiance to the U.S. and Christian Flags and the Preamble to the U.S. Constitution).
- cultures and ideas of people, past and present.
- scientific and technical information.

- Students will communicate and relate to others in the spirit of Christian love and cooperation.

They will accept the need to and attempt to:

- work cooperatively with others.
- respect and empathize with those who are different (including differences of gender, ethnicity, ability, appearance, and belief).
- serve others with spiritual gifts, talents and/or leadership.

- Students will develop physical fitness and good health.

They will:

- know the effects of nutrition, disease, and activity on their bodies.
- understand and accept the changes occurring in their bodies (including the Christian perspective on sexual development).
- participate in a variety of physical activities.

- Students will understand and live by Christian principles.

They will:

- know important Biblical history, commandments, and people.
- attempt to apply Biblical truth in daily life.
- seek to understand the consequences of choices they make.
- see the need for personal commitment to Christ.
- recognize Christ as a real-life historical person.
- acknowledge God's mighty works.

TO PREPARE STUDENTS FOR PRODUCTIVE LIVES AS RESPONSIBLE CITIZENS IN A FREE AND COMPETITIVE SOCIETY.

- Students will act in a responsible manner toward members of the school and larger community.

As students exit Cornerstone Academy, we expect that they will be in the process of becoming:

- confident and accepting of their own and others' strengths and weaknesses.
- responsible decision-makers who can deal with difficulties.
- life-long learners.
- participants in social, political, religious and/or cultural arenas.
- enthusiastic, persevering workers who demonstrate integrity and purpose.
- realistic and positive in setting goals and assessing growth toward excellence.
